Yesterday, today, and tomorrow pass swiftly away and once they are gone, no one or nothing can bring them back. Once they have passed through the hour glass, taking with them all our memories, we can never bring them back, except within our hearts and minds. There in our minds we can recall all the pleasant as well as the unpleasant things we have known and shared together the past twelve years. We have seen time swiftly passing through the hour glass, as each moment found us eagerly awaiting the next.

Though yesterday, and most of today have passed through the hour glass, we still have tomorrow. There will always be tomorrow. Tomorrow is the day our dreams become realities; tomorrow we will conquer the world. We are tomorrow and what tomorrow is to be, depends entirely upon what we do as individuals today.

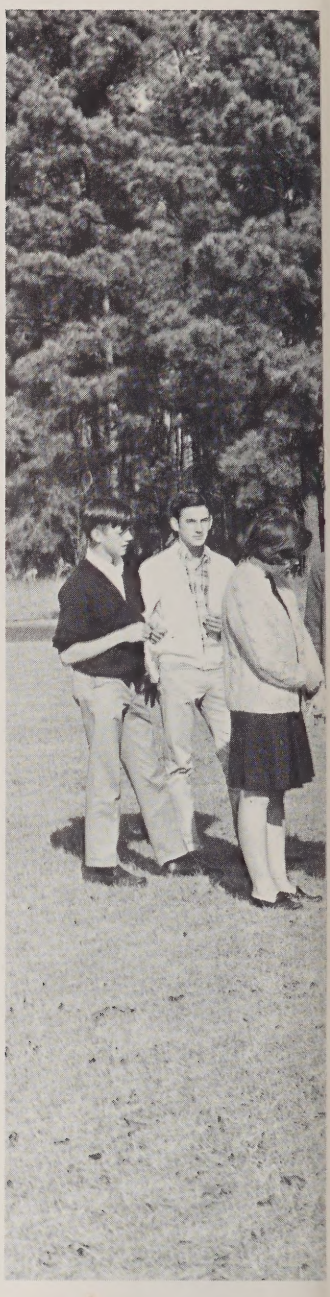
Foreword



You, the green freshman; you, the sophisticated sophomore; you, the expectant, hardworking junior; you, the self-assured, confident senior - to everyone at Broadway School - THIS IS YOUR YEAR.

It is a year filled with moments of laughter, excitement, friendship, and study. Although many of these moments may seem insignificant, these are the things that make a year memorable. Whether cheering your teams to victory, cramming for the quiz you just heard about, or having the time of your life at the dance, you will come to treasure these moments, for they make up Your Year.

In this volume we have attempted to preserve these memories that you may never forget this - Your Year.
